April 2023 Newsletter

We returned from our epic Arizona trip yesterday. The weather here was grey and bleak, but the welcome from friends and family has been brilliant - we're happy to be back!

If you're on the north island, mark your calendars - I'm heading to the setting of True Moxie for a book reading & signing on May 11, 2023, at The Bookshelf in Port McNeill, BC.

Tell your friends and I hope to see you there!

Wherever you are, I hope you get time this spring to explore and imagine - whether that's in your backyard or further afield!

TRAVEL NEWS

Everyone loves a road trip!

Road trips always open my eyes to the vastness of this planet and how much terrain can change in just a few hours of driving.

And as I research the history of a place, I imagine the task of traveling before roads and vehicles - humans are stubborn.
